

Ms. Su Chuanrong

Director- General, China National Coal Association (CNCA)

Ms. Su Chuanrong graduated with a Ph.D from China University of Mining and Technology and has been holding various leadership position at the China National Coal Association since 2008.

Besides being the Director General and Overseeing international cooperation at CNCA, she is also Vice President of Coal Sub-council,CCPIT.

From 2008 to 2018, Dr. Su worked as Director-General , Deputy Director-General of international cooperation at China National Coal Association , responsible for the organization of International Coal Summit, China Coal & Mining Expo, China International Clean Coal & Energy Expo, and Global Seaborne Coal Summit.

From 2002 to 2007, Dr. Su was Director of National Center for International Cooperation in Work Safety, the State Administration of Work Safety, accomplished organization, implementation and management of several international multilateral and bilateral mine safety cooperation programs.

From 1988 to 2001, Dr. Su worked as a Professor of National Training Center of Coal Mines, and directed the work of China Collaboration Center of International Labor Organization-International Occupational Safety and Health Information Center (ILO-CIS).

She received the Special Achievement Award from the United States Department of Labor in 2003, the Special Award from Embassy of Poland in Beijing for her contribution to China-Poland relationship in 2014.